

Free Online Chinese Language Training Program (Year 2022)

About Program

This program is open to all students from Jiaxing University' s overseas cooperative universities. The online courses are free of charge. The courses are taught by highly-qualified faculty with rich experience in Chinese language teaching in our university. We provide online live streaming courses for international students who are interested in Chinese Language and willing to improve their Chinese language skills and learn more about China.

Program Highlights

<Experience quality Chinese language teaching resources without leaving your country>----The online courses are taught by our first-class teaching team with extensive Chinese language teaching experience, providing international students with excellent Chinese language teaching resources without travelling abroad.

<With teachers face to face online>----Through the real-time teaching on the live broadcast platform named Dingtalk, combined with online interactions, students can get the same study experience as what they get from offline classes.

<Students can watch recorded videos over and over again>---- If you miss the live streaming class, you can also watch recorded video of the class so as to make study time more flexible.

<Multi-cultural online classroom environment>----International students from different countries enjoy the same class time. Multi-cultural class and communication make atmosphere of the online study more interesting.
